When I was questioning, every place I turned seemed to have THE answer; it was confusing. Though there are many enlightened teachers, I still needed to sort my own beliefs, and wanted to figure out my existence in this time and place. Upon discovering Avatar and Harry Palmer's writings, I felt like some long-repressed mother-tongue was returned to me; I came home!

Within days of my Avatar Course, I was on a flight to Orlando for the Master's Course. Four months later, I returned for the Professional Course. Three months after that I attended Wizards, an experience everyone should have ~ being in the same room with thousands of people from around the world, with only one purpose in mind; an Enlightened Planetary Civilization. It is amazing!

And it continues...

Avatar took me out of my mind and back into the feel for life, showing me how to inspect my beliefs (especially transparent beliefs!) to decide whether I truly wanted to embrace them. Living deliberately easily enriches my relationships and purpose. Life flourishes and it is wonderful!

"The proper use of will power is not conquest and subjugation, but the disciplined control of your own attention..."
- Harry Palmer, author of The Avatar Materials

Avatar is an awakening of your own ability to create the life you want to have. This amazingly powerful course is based on the simple concept that your beliefs create what you experience in your life. When you change what you believe, you also change your experience. Avatar is the most efficient way I know of to know yourself and contribute to creating a better world.

You've taken the first step already.
