Before you call - Ask Scott about the special pricing and owner financing options.

I'm ready to speak to a professional about lot and construction financing, what do I need ?

Lot & construction financing was unavailable during the height of the bank industry's issues of 2009. However, both of these lenders do indeed have lot and custom home construction loan programs and both are very familiar with Phase II of Hillsborough Estates.

I have worked with the following individuals for many years, like me, they have been through the tough markets and the great markets. Each are experts in their field and provide excellent customer service.
